REMARKS .- Flour opened dull and heavy at last week's quotations, but as the week advanced considerable activity was manifested, and large lots changed hands at a decline of fully 50c per barrel for cash sales; when the money market becomes easier holders look for an improvement in prices. Wheat opened dull, but towards the middle of the week, though prices were stiffer, the market was more active; choice samples are in particular request at an advance of 5 to 6c, while damp and inferior lots are inactive; the market closes with a tendency towards a farther advance in prices; offerings to-day of 1754 bushels, with sales of whire at 135 145 and 165 for fair to choice, and red at 125 and 135 for common to fair, 145 and 150 for medium to good, and 155, 160 and 162 for prime samples. Receipts of Corn are very light, with a better demand, and prices have advanced 2aSc. Rye is unchanged; offerings light, with sales to-day at 78 for common. Butter is in liberal receipt, and prices are not so strong. Eggs have declined 3a4c during the week. Potatoes are in light receipt, with a bet ter demand; the old stock is well worked off. Onions are scarce and wanted. Bacon is quiet

BALTIMORE CATTLE, MARKET, October 2 .-Prices to-day for Beef Cattle ranged as fol-Best Beeves at 5 00a$6 00; generally rated first quality at 450a$5 00; medium to good fair quality at 3 50a$4 25; ordinary thin Steers, Oxen and Cows at 3 00a$3 50; inferior and lowest grades of Cattle 0 00a$0 00—general average of the market to-day $4 62; extreme range of prices 3 00a$6 00. Most of the sales were from 4 25 to $5 25 per 100 lbs. Total receipts for the week 3454 head. Total sales for the week 2356 head. There was an oversupply on the market this week, and it was dull and draggy most of the time. The quality was better than last week, but most of the best Cattle were reshipped East without being offered here. Sheep and Lambs-The receipts of Sheep have been quite full again this week, and those of good quality exceeded in number those of last week, but they have not brought as high figures by le, quality considered-quotations are thought to be he per lb lower than last week at 4a5c per lb gross, but few, and those extra, selling at the outside figure, and market slow. Stock Sheep dull at 2a$2 50 per head, and Lambs in good demand at 2a$2 50 per head. Receipts this week

Hogs-There has been a full supply on the market this week, rather more than are needed, the demand being only moderate, and prices have fallen off gradually, the decline commencing about Monday last, and now quotations range from $5.75 for common and stillers to $7 371 per 100 lbs net for best corn-fed Hogs, but lew selling at the latter figure, and at the close the market is weak, with prices tending down-wards, owing to there being but little demand for the Hog product for export. Receipts this week 8032 head.

CHICAGO CATTLE MARKET, Oct. 2.-Cattle-Receipts 1200; rather more active on local, but still dull on shipping account; only one lot extra 1641 lb Steers selling at $5.75; fair to good butchers' stock 3x$4 15; Texan Steers 2x$3 10; shipments 744. Live Hogs active to the extent of fresh offerings, and prices of light grades advanc. d; receipts 2500; sales of common to heavy grades at 4a$4 35; good to selected Yorkers 4 40 $4 (0), closing with all desirable lots sold; shipments 3:00. Sheep—active local demand; receipts 560; prices higher; good 50$5 124.

RICHMOND MARKET, Oct. 2.—The market has been quiet, partaking of the general dullness con-sequent upon the unsettled state of financial af-fairs. Offerings to-day of 5000 bushels Wheat, with sales of white at 120a160 for common to very good, and 135a160 for do. red. Very little Corn offering, with sales of white at 78. No transactions in Oats or Rye reported.

LYNCHBURG MARKET, Oct. 2.-The market during the week has been very quiet, and busin ss, owing to the financial situation, dull. There is no quotable change in prices since last week. Wheat is very dull, with but few buyers. Corn and Oats scarce, and for both there is some FREDERICKSBURG MARKET, Oct. 2.- The offerings of Grain this week have been very light, and millers have been compelled to go outside for supplies. Wheat is quoted at 140a170 for white and red. Corn 78a80. Oats 35a40, and Rye 65a70.

LOCAL NEWS.

PAY DAY .- To-morrow is the day when business men, mechanics and all who employ hands, have to pay the weekly wages-and it would be a great convenience to them, to have the small bills due them, promptly paid. It would enable them to afford relief to many, who have families to support.

ELIGIBILITY OF LEGISLATORS .-- In these changed times qualifications for office are rarely considered, Radicals and Conserva tives alike conceding that the mere fact of being elected is sufficient proof of the efficiency of the successful aspirant. With regard to disqualifications, however, it is different, and the disqualification of members of the Bouse of Delegates is now a topic of much apparent interest among many of the city politicians, inasmuch as some of the candidates already nominated for that position and some whose names have been spoken of in connection with a nomination are supposed to be affected by them. The constitution says that Sheriff's shall hold no other office, and as a sheriff continues to be sheriff until his successor enters upon the duties of the office, it is plain that Mr. O'Neal, one of the candidates of the Radicals, is ineligible. Syphax, the other candidate of that party, is also said, by some to be ineligible because he was elected Clerk of the County Court and has never been legally deprived of that office. The constitution also says that city officers can hold no other office, and as sergeants can not resign, it would seen that they, as well as sheriffs, are incligible. A careful examination of the subject will convince any one that neither Sheriff O'Neal nor City Sergeaut Steuart will be admitted to seats in the House of Delegates even if elected therete.

THE YACHT RACE YESTERDAY .- The third regatta for the "challenge flag" took place yesterday morning, between the yachts Gertrude, Blue Wing and Fannie Bell, and was neatly wou by the Gertrude.

The boats took a flying start, under a light breeze from the north, in the following order: Fannie Bell, Capt. Wesley Davis, 9;40 a. m.; Gertrude, Capt. David Jenkius, 9:443 a. m.; Blue Wing, Capt. Geo. Lacock, 9:47 a. m.

The Bell widened the distance between her and the Gertrude for the first four miles, when the Gertrude began to pick up lost ground, and passed the Bell a short distance before turning the buoy at Fort Foote. The three boats turned the buoy one half minute apart. Coming home the wind was very light, and still from the north, and none of the boats made very great headway. The home buoy was turned in the following order: Gertrude, 2:19½ p. m.; Blue Wing, 2:25 p. m.; Fannie Bell, 2:24 p. m. The judges were Messrs. Duvall, Holliday and Widstrand. All the boats were sailed by professionals as sailing-masters and crews, and were beautifully handled. This is probably the closing regatta of the season, and the Gertrude holds the colors for the second time. - Wash. Rep.

REVOLT IN THE CHAIN GANG. -- One of the oldest members of the chain gang, a colored man named Robert Johnson, refused to go on duty when called for at the jail this morning, stating that he was sick. Capt. Warring believing him to be a malingerer, ordered him to fall into line at once, but, instead of obeying | Let us hope that the blessing of God may be the order, he seized the ball attached to the upon us. He then advanced in a threating attitude upon jailor Cline, but stopped abruptly when the latter informed him that he would shoot him instantly, and finally expended the remainder of his anger in a futile attempt to strike a colored member of the gang. Having become quiet, he was marched off to the station house by policeman Ogden, and will linger, in if not in love's chains, in chains that bind much stronger than those of the blind God.

> MOONLIGHT FUNERAL. - The remains of Mr. John Green, a native of the North, but for some years past a resident of Manassas, where he died the day before, were brought here yesterday and interred at an early hour last night the moon's beams as they fell upon the tomb- the list of officers as read, adopted. stones and upon the few friends of the deceased, who stood around his bier, and east their shadows into the open grave, and the serious aspect of the rector, as with uncovered head and clothed in his sacerdotal robes, he repeated, Churchill, of England, Hon. R. C. Winthrop, without the use of the prayer book, the solemn of Mass., Rev. W. Dooner and Rev. Mr. Buckservice of the dead, altogether constituted a most melancholy and awe inspiring picture, and the remembrance of which will long linger with those who witnessed the impressive ceremony.

POLICE REPORT.—The following cases were disposed of at the Mayor's office since yesterday's report: Julia Francis and Alexander Cross, arrested on complaint of Wesley Morgan, all colored, for disorderly conduct at a ball given by complainant at his house, corner of Union and Princess streets, were fined and dis charged by Justice Robert Bell, acting Mayor.

A man giving his name as W. H. Hunter, supposed to be a deserter from the Marine barracks at Washington, arrested while drunk, was locked up for further examination, Justice Brown, of Fairfax county, has issued warrant for the arrest of Edward Dove, charged with perjury.

U. S. DISTRICT COURT. - In the case of John T. Henderson & Co. vs. H. S. Wattles, assignee of M. Eidridge & Co., F. L. Smith and Charles E. Stuart appeared at 10 o'clock this morning before Judge Underwood and moved the court, as the appeal to Judge Bond had not been prosecuted, to enter a peremptory order to the assignee to pay over immediately the money found due to Henderson & Co., and the Judge granted the motion and entered an order to that effect.

OYSTERS.—The supply of oysters continues to improve both in quality and quantity, and the dealers are generally able to fill all orders that may be sent them. The numerous steamers now running on the Potemac bring up large quantities and the arrivals of cargoes by sailing vessels are increasing in frequency. The sloop Sam. Gedney arrived this morning with a cargo which was disposed of at fifty cents a bushel, and another cargo was expected to arrive today. CANAL TRDE. - Navigation on the Chesapeake and Ohio Canal has been unobstructed for some weeks, and coal faom Cumberloud is arriving here in large quantities. The canal is rarely closed before the 20th of December, and should no more interruptions occur vast stores of coal will have accumulated in the several yards here by that time. The piles of it are already increasing rapidly in size, and vessels are wanted to carry it away.

FELL IN A WELL .- A colored man named George Washington Chancy while rolling a barrel of liquor across the floor of the cellar of Fritz Sonneider's restaurant, on Royal street, Ladies', Gents' and Children's Merino Under- this afternoon, broke through the covering of a well and fell in, the barrel falling in after him, in coal and making preparations to attack Vabut luckily catching by its chimes against the brick walls of the well, and becoming jammed before it reached the alarmed man below.

SPECIAL DISPATCHES TO THE GAZETTE.

The Evangelical Alliance. NEW YORK, Oct. 3.-The Evangelical Conference was opened with prayer this morning at Madison Square Church. Formal opening for business took at 10:30 o'clock in Steinway Hall. The vast hall was crowded to excess with delegates and they swarmed out in the obbies and stairs at either end of the block through which the hall extends. The large platform was so crowded that as early as ten cleck there was hardly standing room. The Oriental delegates in white tartans were conspicuous objects in the vicinity of the chair. Hon. Wm. Dodge called the meeting to order | country next summer. and said: "You are here assembled from all parts of the world, from countries having instiutions and laws quite different from ours. As for us we seek no alliance with the State. We only ask protection and the full enjoyment of religious liberty. (Great applause). We trust hat many of you will have an opportunity of visiting our far Western lands, and beyond our pland seas and of seeing the marvelous extension our country is undergoing. When we visit your countries we are deeply interested in looking over the works of centuries; your grand cathedrals and your works of renows. When you come here we ask you to look at what has mainly been accomplished in a single century. The bject of your meeting has been discussed for a long time and the country is alive to this convocation, Not only our own, but other lands are viewing you with intense interest. 'The eyes of God and man are on us." (Applause).

After singing the doxology prayer was given by the Rev. Dr. Hodge, of Princeton. Rev.Dr. Rigg, of London, pext read a portion of the 17th chapter of St. John, after which there was a prayer by Rev. Mateo Prochet, of Italy, and was followed by the Dean of Canterbury with the crede. The entire conference then rose and sung, with one voice, the evangelical hymn coronation.

Financial Affairs.

NEW YORK, Oct. 3.-The firm of Geo. B. Grinuell & Co. were yesterday expelled from the Stock Exchange for refusing to answer certain charges against them in connection with their suspension and the motion to throw them into bankruptcy. This house was the successor of the firm of Geo. B. Grinnell & Co., in which the late Horace F. Clark was special partner. The suspended house was largely "long" of Lake Shore, Western Union, New York Central, and other Vanderbilt stocks. The failure was the occasion of much indignation, as it was supposed that bankruptcy proceedings were instituted in collusion with creditors for the purpose of enabling Geo. Bird, Grinnell & Co. to sell their stocks if rates went up, or to fail without additional loss if prices went down.

There is also some fear that now the three days' grace allowed by the Stock Exchange has expired a number of failures will be announced. NEW YORK, Oct. 3.—The Loan Committee of the Clearing House report that the issue of additional loan certificates will be avoided so far as practicable, and that probably some of them will be called in to-day and canceled.

NEW YORK, Oct. 3-10:10 a. m.-Gold pened at 1-10% and is now 1-101. CHICAGO, Oct. 3 -Financial and commercial matters here continue to improve and everything appears to be rapidly settling back into a normal and healthful condition. The banks are daily increasing in strength, and the demand for grain is active and prices higher.

LONDON, Oct. 3-3:30 p. m.-The amount of bullion gone into the Bank of England on balance to-day is 225,000 pounds.

LONDON, Oct. 3.—The steamship Italy took $250,000 in bullion from Liverpool for New York yesterday, and the steamship Baltic and City of Paris $525,000. The steamship Russia, which also left Liverpool yesterday for Montreal curried out $430,000.

London, Oct. 3.-4 p. m.-The rate of discount in open market for three months bills is just received by 44 per cent., or 1, below the Bank of England rate. Busines in American securities to-day is mainly for investment.
